 August 1, 2009

Longwood Gardens Open Air Theatre
 Curtain 8:30 p.m.

This summer, join the Brandywiners in a land where legends were made — Camelot — the land of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table. You'll be swept away by stories of love and chivalry, of loyalty and intrigue.

Lerner and Loewe's majestic treatment of Camelot remains a classic of American musical theater, featuring such beautiful love songs as "If Ever I Would Leave You" and "I Loved You Once in Silence," not to mention light-hearted delights such as "I Wonder What the King is Doing Tonight" and "C'est Moi."

Ever since Richard Burton, Robert Goulet, and Julie Andrews premiered the show, Camelot has remained a favorite—a story of love lost and found. And there is no better setting for this elegant production than the beautiful Open Air Theatre at Longwood Gardens.

Make your reservations now and join the Royal Court for a mystical evening in Camelot.

Your ticket also includes free parking, all-day admission to Longwood Gardens on the date of the performance, and a spectacular fountain display after the show. Come and enjoy the entire day!
