Guys and Dolls

Music and Lyrics by Frank Loesser
Book by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows
Original Staging by George S. Kaufman

Based on "The Idyll of Miss Sarah Brown"
by Damon Runyon

First produced at the 46th Street Theatre on November 24, 1950

July 29, 30, & 31 and August 5, 6, & 7, 2010

Longwood Gardens Open Air Theatre
Curtain 8:30 p.m.

This summer, join the Brandywiners in Damon Runyon's New York City.

From the Biltmore Garage and Hot Box Night Club to the Save-a-Soul mission, Guys and Dolls will warm your heart with its endearing characters, whisk you from New York to Havana and back, and send you in search of the infamous floating crap game!

Guys and Dolls boasts songs made famous throughout the years, including: "Luck Be Lady," "I'll Know," and of course, "Guys and Dolls." From the gamblers' opening "Fugue for Tin Horns" to Sky Masterson's "I've Never Been in Love Before," you'll witness the seedy side of New York and the power of love to convert even the worst "sinner."

Make your reservations now and join the Brandywiners for this fantastic "fable of Broadway."

Your ticket also includes free parking, all-day admission to Longwood Gardens on the date of the performance and a spectacular fountain display after the show. Come and enjoy the entire day!
